

The Lemon Tree

Describe the main characters. List their role or a brief description of their character, the country they live in and their native language.

Character Name	Role	Nationality	Language
Salma Zidane (um naser)
Israel Navon
Mira Navon
Ziad Daoud

Why does Salma go to the coffee shop? Why do you think everyone stops talking when she comes in?

---

---

What is the main problem Salma faces?

---

What does Naser (Salma's son) say to his mom when she tells him about the problem?

---

---

Why are the lemon trees important to Salma?

---

At 23 minutes Salma has a short dream about the grove. What does she remember? The dream ends with a view of construction of the separation wall. Why do you think the director chose this juxtaposition (contrast)?

---

---

---

---

The section we viewed today ends with a conversation between Salma and a young soldier in the lemon grove. This conversation is different than other interactions between Salma and the Israeli authorities. What is different about this conversation? What are the characters talking about?

---

---

---

---

The scene ends with a view of Mira Navon watching the conversation. What do you imagine she is thinking?
